DEATH. Loudon, Joseph EDWARD MANGER, late of miserable failure. How unlike the Japanese. Hongkong, aged 32 years.

HONGKONG, FEBRUARY 10TH, 1877.

THE Perak outbreak and the murder of Mr. Buscu, the British Resident there, are now the 20th ultimo these men were hanged. Other accused persons were sentenced to vorious terms of imprisonment, which they are now undergoing in the gaols of the that the demands of justice bave been pretty nearly satisfied. The Press and the resideuts in the Straits do not however, seem at all satisfied with the reticence observed by the Government in connection with the trials of the prisoners, and the Singapore Times has of the cheir.

been asking why an authoritative account of the trial has not been published. Our contemporary warmly resents the change of Aden, Galle, Singapore and Saigon, with the policy adopted in this respect by Sir WILLIAM Junvois, and, rightly enough, doubtless, ascribes it to the influence of the Colonial This Comprehensive Work, now in the Office. It would, of course, be much more satisfactory to know on what grounds the three men were hung on the 20th ultimo, and a full statement will probably be made at some future date, when strong encouragement to Chinese coolies public interest has died out, and the occurrence become well nigh forgotten. The Colonial Office never does things in a hurry, and is not accustomed to minister to the curiosity of an inquiring public. In fact, a fixed belief seems to prevail in that Department of State that delay is good for colonies, whother in the matter the correction of a long standing grievance or the ranction of a much needed public work. Of course, the cool and leisurely manner in which questions of great importance to the tardy in getting round.

The delay with regard to the fate of the Sultan Apputtan certainly seems, on the in acknowledgment of his assistance to the crows surface, most unressonable. He is, it appears, now lodged in Singapore Gaol, for them. pending the pleasure of the Governor of the Straits Settlements. No one seems nreaerve silence on this as on all other points. writing on the subject, aptly observes that the Authorities have had ample time to make up their minds as to what should be done, and that to keep the Sultan in a state of suspense as to his ultimate fate is, to the outside spectator, a very serious wrong. "He is guilty, or he is not. ... If he is, punish him . if not, restore him; but to keep him in his present state of suspense is not only unnecessary cruelty, but manifest injustice." These remarks will be echoed by most outsiders. If there is a reason for the delay With brief descriptions of Hongkong, the ut should, at all events, be made public. and then both the natives and foreigners would be better sutisfied. The practice of withholding information from the Press and the public is much to be deprecated, unless there is some special reason for it. It is, in this instance, now that the authors of the conspiracy to murder Mr. Brace bave expiated their offence on the scaffold. difficult to imagine any good pretext for keeping the community ignorant of the proceedings at their trial. There is, however little doubt that Sir WILLIAM JERVOIS is acting under instructions from the Imperial Government, in which case, considering that he has already incurred the censure of the noble lord the Secretary for the Colonies for acting too independently, he cannot be blamed for maintaining reserve.

> Ir is much to be regretted that Reuter's Agent should have omitted seeding the following important telegram dated London, the 80th January, to Hongkong .- "The reported disarming of the Turkish civil population is now discovered to have been uncunded." Why the residents of this Colony should have been favoured with the rumour and those of Singapore with its contradiction supposition that great carelessness is displayed in the selection of the telegrams. The fact that the report in question THE CHORAL SOCIETY'S CONCERT. is untrue puts the political situation on ventured to take such a step as that mentioned in the rumour it would have done more to ensure peace than may other promiss of reform. The report being incorrect. however, leaves matters in a very uncertain state, and peace cannot new be safely predicted. The Powers will certainly do what they can to avoid war, but Russia-may yet contrive to bring about a disagreement among them. Additional light is shed on the telegram last received here voice. It was followed by a trio "Mynheer of the junk and in his claim as stated in the by one published under date of the 31st-ultimo, by our Singapore contempo- was much liked, and very heartily applanded. This seems to me to show from the 31st ultimo, but will be, it is auno and halian Consuls have advised Prince NIKITA to endeavour to make peace, provided the Porte is willing to make some concession of territory. This it appears, from our last telegram, the Porte is indisposed to for it. This was pleasingly rendered, and fully doubts whether I am doing right in not orders to convey Mr. Consul Davenport to Wen. do, either in the case of Servia or Montenegro.
